History

The Royal Court Brass was founded in 1970 in San Francisco. Performance credits include the Renaissance Pleasure Faire, Dickens Christmas Fair, Grace Cathedral, Ghirardelli Square, Union Square, Villa Montalvo, Kohl Mansion, Yosemite National Park, The Exploratorium, Candlestick Park, the San Francisco Airport Holiday Festival, and many more. Initially, the group performed classical music written and arranged for brass instruments. Later, we branched out into contemporary, pop, and holiday music. This is our first jazz concert. The Royal Court Brass has performed at Trinity Presbyterian Church since 1985. The group is under the direction of Bryce Martens.
